

Senior Care Centers of America Acquires Preston House Adult Day Health Center in East Hartford, CT

TREVOSE, PA – March 19, 2008 – Senior Care Centers of America, the second largest operator of adult day health centers in the United States, today announced the acquisition of the Preston House adult day health center, located at 144 Main Street in East Hartford, CT. The transaction closed on March 19, 2008.

Consistent with its branding process, the name of the center has been changed to Senior Care of East Hartford. The East Hartford facility joins Senior Care's Hartford and Middlebury centers in its growing network of adult day health service locations in Connecticut.

"Preston House and its staff have an excellent reputation for providing high quality care and services to adults in need," said Jim Donnelly, President and CEO for Senior Care. "We are committed to ensuring a smooth transition so all clients will continue to receive the highest level of care they have come to expect and deserve."

One of the fastest growing options in the health care industry, adult day health centers provide a structured daytime program of health and social services and activities in a safe, caring environment, enabling elderly and disabled clients to live at home and remain in their communities.

Senior Care, which was founded in 1988, provides adult day health services at 20 centers located in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and Mississippi. The Company is the leading independent provider in its core markets. Each adult day health center enables frail, elderly or disabled adults to live at home and remain independent in their communities while receiving health care and supervision during the day.
